1.	Deutsch Wagram (P 49/5 50) airfield was not occupied and there was no air activity. The shraphelproof aircraft revetments were vacant. On the eastern edge of the field, there were several AA gun emplacements, including one with an AA gun of about 80-mm caliber with a flash hider. Five men apparently received instructions on these guns. At about 11:50 a.m., 34 men wearing red-bordered black epaulets and without arms marched toward Strasshof (P 49/S 50), apparently coming from the airfield. No activity was observed near the motor vehicle repair shop. No motor vehicles could be observed, but many tracks indicated that there had been intensive vehicular traffic. The motor pool was guarded by a sentry who were black-bordered blue epaulets. The garages were occupied by seven tank trucks.	25
